LEFT: The only major change Nate made to the floor plan was to tear down the wall between the living room and the bedroom. He also closed up the doorway between the bedroom and the kitchen.

BELOW: White subway tiles replaced the pink ones in Nate's bathroom. He installed a steel mirror from Scout, a light fixture from Circa Lighting, and a shower curtain from Nate Berkus at Linens 'n Things and swapped the pedestal sink for a less contemporary one. For details, see Shop Guide.

PINK? UM, NO THANKS.
